

Red Hot Chili Peppers "Aeroplane" (1996)

CHORUS:

I like pleasure _____ with _____
And _____ is my aeroplane
It's my aeroplane
_____ sweet and _____ Jane
And music is my aeroplane
It's my aeroplane
Pleasure _____ with pain
That _____'s always spiked with pain

Looking in my own _____, hey Lord
I can't find the _____ I want
Someone better _____ me
Before I start to _____
Before I start to _____
Looking in my _____ mirror (2x)
I can make it _____ (2x)
have no _____

CHORUS:...

Sitting in my _____, hey girl
I'm turning into _____ again
My _____ baby
The star of Mazzy must Push her _____ inside of me
I'm overcoming _____ (2x)
It's easy when you're sad to be
It's easy when you're sad, sad like me

CHORUS:...

Just one _____ could make me float
Could make me float away
One note from the _____ she wrote
Could _____ me where I lay
Just one note could make me _____
One note, that's not a lie
Just one note could cut my _____
One note could make me die

📖 The Red Hot Chili Peppers are an American rock band formed in Los Angeles in 1983. Their music incorporates elements of alternative rock, funk, punk rock and psychedelic rock.

📖 The chorus was actually written by Flea, and the song's based on an old gospel song "Jesus is my Aeroplane" that Flea listened to when he was younger:

*Oh, Jesus is my air-o-plane
He holds this world in his hands
He rides along, He don't never fall*

He's not religious in that sense any more, but he feels that music is his Aeroplane. it's probably both about enjoying music and also drugs.

📖 If you pay attention, Anthony struggled with his drug addiction around this time. And a lot of the time, he would have upbeat music, but put depressing lyrics in it. In my opinion, he was calling for help. There's a lot to it too. Like "looking in my rearview mirror, I can make it disappear", is pretty much about Hillel's death. And Anthony did drugs in his kitchen. But the whole band was there too, that they were too gone to pay attention to Anthony's call for help. It's what I see. This song has so much to it, I could go on and on.

📖 I believe this song is about drug addiction. During the release of 'One Hot Minute' Anthony Kiedis had slipped back into drugs as soon as he started making music again. He admitted it in numerous interviews, saying that replacing Hillel again made him depressed and he couldn't cope. That's why he says he hated making One Hot Minute, because it brought up all his old pain about Hillel Slovak's death.

📖 I love the Velvet Underground reference. "Sour Jane".

📖 the dude who said fleas daughter's name ISNT Clara is a total moron. he said her name was Claire. Claire is actually some chick anthony dated on and off during the "Californication" era.

📖 Wow nobody pointed out that Mazzy Star reference? The song is obviously about how Music is his addiction and he makes a reference to singer Mazzy Star and her song "Into Dust"

*Still falling
Breathless and on again
Inside today
Beside me today
Around broken in two
'Till you eyes shed
Into dust
